Yolo Community Foundation Hosts Yolo County Nonprofit Leadership Roundtable: YoloLINK

April 2008 – Yolo Community Foundation’s next Yolo County Nonprofit Leadership Roundtable will host a presentation on YoloLINK. They will also discuss other services available to nonprofits through the Yolo County Library. The roundtable will be held Tuesday April 8, 2008 from Noon - 2:00 p.m. at the Heidrick Ag History Center at 1962 Hays Lane in Woodland. All Yolo County Nonprofit Leaders are encouraged to attend.

Keri Hill of the Yolo County Library will discuss what YoloLINK is, how it is used, and why nonprofits should use it. YoloLINK was established in 1993 as a free service to the Residents of Yolo County through the Yolo County Library and in partnership with the Department of Employment and Social Services of Yolo County. The aim of YoloLINK is to provide information regarding community services. These services include but are not limited to Employment, Education, Food, Shelter, and Volunteer Opportunities.

All people that are involved in leadership positions (whether staff or board members) in Yolo County nonprofits are invited to attend and attendance to the Roundtable is free. Attendees are invited to bring their own “brown bag” lunch along with their ideas and energy. Future meetings are planned for Tuesday August 12th and Tuesday October 14th. All events are at Noon at Heidrick Ag History Center.
